Navy League of the United States Executive Director to Appear on Sound Off Connecticut Will Discuss the Sea Services and Navy League with the Heritage Foundation's Peter Brookes

ARLINGTON, Va. – Navy League Executive Director Dale Lumme will be a guest in the 10 a.m. hour, Tuesday, July 5, 2011 on the WTIC News Talk 1080 morning radio show Sound Off Connecticut with special guest host Peter Brookes from the Heritage Foundation.

Mr. Lumme will discuss the Navy League with a focus on the organization's Maritime Policy Statement and the important contributions our sea services make to our national security and economic stability. Brookes, a senior fellow for National Security Affairs at Heritage recently spoke at the Navy League's annual Board of Directors meeting in Washington D.C. where he focused on the numerous threats the U.S. faces around the world and the need for a capable, credible maritime force to deal with any future crises.

Listeners in the northeast can dial in to the conversation live at AM 1080 and the event will stream live on the internet at <http://connecticut.cbslocal.com/>

The Navy League of the United States was founded in 1902 and is a civilian organization with more than 50,000 members dedicated to educating American citizens and elected officials about the importance of sea power to U.S national security and supporting the men and women of the sea services and their families.
