

The Navy League of the United States
ALBERT A. MICHELSON AWARD

Albert A. Michelson Award honors a civilian scientist, technical innovator or technical organization for scientific or technical achievement that results in a significant improvement in the strength of our maritime forces or to the enhancement of our industrial technology base. In selecting the Michelson Award recipient, the committee will give consideration to single event contributions, such as inventions and technological innovations, or long-term scientific development work.

Selection and Award Presentation

Nomination Packages will be reviewed and evaluated by a distinguished committee appointed by the National President of the Navy League. The committee will have the challenge of selecting the “best of the best” among civilian leaders. The winners will be honored in front of an audience of senior military leaders and their industry peers at the Sea-Air-Space Luncheon on Wednesday, April 18th, 2012, at the Gaylord Resort and Convention Center in National Harbor, MD. The invited keynote speaker is General James Amos, Commandant, United States Marine Corps. Winners are expected to accept the award in person on April 18th, 2012.
